A Note from the Pastor

This weekend we turn our attention to the Holy Spirit. Jesus tells his Apostles that the Father will send the Holy Spirit who will both teach them and remind them of what he had already taught them. We will hear more about the Holy Spirit as we approach Pentecost and the conclusion of the Easter season.

As we continue with our pastoral planning, and as we prepare to go to one priest for St. Bernadette, Holy Ghost, and Gross Catholic High School it is apparent how important deacons are and will continue to be in our parish family. Deacons are able to fill vital administrative roles; help teach Religious Ed, RCIA, and adult faith formation; perform the sacraments of marriage and baptism; as well as preach at Mass and adoration. We have been blessed with many holy deacons here at St. Bernadette. And we believe that God is calling more men from our parish to serve as deacons. The Archdiocese is beginning the process of deacon formation, if you are interested in learning more about what a deacon does, or if you feel like God is calling you find out more about our deacon formation program, please contact either Deacon Subby or Deacon Gary to find out more information.

Graduation season is upon us, and I would like to congratulate all of our grade school, high school, and college graduates this week. Please join me in prayer for these graduates.

For I know well the plans I have in mind for you ... plans for your welfare and not for woe, so as to give you a future of hope. When you call me, and come and pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, I will let you find me...and I will change your lot. (Jeremiah 29:11-14)

Have a blessed week

Fr. Jeff

As many of you know the rectory has been under remodel and have been asking for ways to help. Here is a registry of some items for the rectory. Thank you to all that have helped and donated so far.

What is your desire? A powerful moment on retreat this past summer came with the passage of Jesus healing Bartimaeus, a blind man. Jesus asks him, "What do you want me to do for you?" My initial reaction was that Jesus asked a stupid question. He's blind! What do you think he wants?! But there is power in expressing that desire. By vocalizing our wants and desires, it makes them concrete. The past week, I have really wanted to just go to a baseball field and play catch with my dad. Will I have a "Field of Dreams" experience anytime soon? Not likely. But, being able to name that desire and express it to the Father, that's what He wants to hear. So, if Jesus came up to you and asked, "What do you want me to do for you?" how would you respond? What do you desire?

Vocations

FAMILY LIFE can build values integral to a strong vocation - whether to priesthood, religious life or marriage. Teaching your children to value commitment, service and prayer will help them make strong vocation decisions as adults and live out those vocations with success and fulfillment.

This week pray for Seminarian Nicholas Paltz. Read his vocations story and biography at <https://archomaha.org/vocations/seminary-life/Nicholas-Paltz/>

That men and women discerning their vocation will not let their hearts be troubled or afraid, but rather will find comfort and guidance in the Holy Spirit.

"Whoever loves me will keep my word." Are you called to bring the word of Christ to his flock?
