A Note from the Pastor

This weekend we celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi, that is the Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. This gift of our faith reminds us that we understand the host that we receive at Mass to be Christ's Body. Jesus gave us his Body and Blood as real food and drink so that it could change and transform our lives. In our Gospel this week when Jesus and the Apostles encounter the hungry crowds, Jesus first tells his Apostles to give the crowd some food themselves. When we allow our lives to be transformed by the Eucharist, we have something to give to others, but what we give is not our own. We pass on what Jesus has given to us.

This week we have our second Pastoral Planning meeting with a group made up of parishioners from both Holy Ghost and St. Bernadette. Our first meeting was productive as we took time to get to know each other, and to look at different models for forming our new parish family. This week we will continue that discussion and attempt to put together a timeline for our future meetings. We are just one year out from Fr. Sanderson retiring at Holy Ghost and St. Bernadette and Holy Ghost becoming one parish family. Please continue to pray for our new parish family.

Our parish festival is only one month away!! We still have plenty of opportunities for parishioners and families to get involved. Please see our parish website or call the parish office for more information.

Finally, I will be away again next week. Each year priests are required to make retreat. I will be attending the Jesus Caritas retreat in Kansas City. This retreat is structured on the life and writings of St. Charles de Foucauld, who I mentioned in my homily a few weeks ago. Please say an extra prayer as I was asked to give one of the presentations to my brother priests this year.

Have a blessed week,

Fr. Jeff

On the day of prom my Junior Year, I walked into the living room with my tux on. Before I could sit on the couch, my mom said, "Wait a minute. Let me just look at you." Being full of insecurities and angst, I tried to fight it. Playing the Mom Card, my mom finally convinced me to just stand and allow myself to be looked at. I was only focusing on my problems, like acne, sweat, and the uncomfortableness from the first time wearing a tuxedo. Yet, in the vulnerability standing in front of her, my Mom didn't see any of that. She just saw her son, whom she loved. Can we allow ourselves to be loved in that way? Standing silently, while the lover silently gazes. It can be so uncomfortable as there is nowhere to hide. Yet, in that vulnerability, that's where we need the love the most. So, do we allow our Heavenly Father to just gaze at us? Can we stop trying to earn the love and just let Him love us? Allow the Lover to look at his Beloved.

In every apparition our heavenly mother has invited us to say the Rosary as a powerful weapon against evil.
To bring us true peace it can bring about a change of hearts and conversion. You can drive away from yourself and from your homeland many dangers and many evils.

What does the devotion to the Sacred Heart consist of?
Formal consecration, a Dailey offering, and celebration of the Eucharist, society will only find hope, healing, and peace through the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

On June 13 1917 at Fatima Our Lady assured Lucia my Immaculate heart will be your refuge and the way that will lead you to God.

If we devote ourselves to her immaculate heart, Mary will lead us to her son Jesus Christ.

Vocations

“...FOR MY FLESH IS TRUE FOOD, AND MY BLOOD IS TRUE DRINK.” - Jesus tells His disciples in John Chapter 6. Without priests we cannot continue to be feed the true food and drink of Jesus’ body, blood, sole, and divinity in the Eucharist. Encouraging boys and young men to discern their true calling from God will help ensure our hunger and thirst being satisfied in the years to come.

This week pray for Seminarian Brian Johnson. Read his vocations story and biography at <https://archomaha.org/vocations/seminary-life/Brian-Johnson/>

That the power of the Body and Blood of Christ will encourage those being called to the priesthood, diaconate or the consecrated life to respond with confidence and joy, we pray to the Lord.

“They all ate and were satisfied.” Are you called to feed his flock as a priest?
