A Note From The Pastor

This weekend we hear the story of scholar who approaches Jesus with the ever-important question, “teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” Jesus responds with the parable of the man who was waylaid by robbers while going from Jerusalem to Jericho. Only one of those who pass by the man stops to take pity on him. If we were to ask Jesus the same question, he would tell us that how we spend eternity is directly tied to how we love those around us.

I would like to thank everyone for the kind cards and gifts celebrating priesthood. I am very grateful to be pastor here at St. Bernadette. I pray that God allows me to stay here for a long time. Thank you also for your prayers as we transition to our new parish family with Holy Ghost parish. Our pastoral planning team has had 2 meetings and we have another one coming up this month. Ultimately, we are working on a transition plan to send to the Archbishop this November for his approval. Fr. Sanderson is set to retire in June of next year, at which time we will form our new parish family. These are very exciting times, and I appreciate all those who have reached out with their prayers and support.

Our parish festival is only 2 weeks away!! We are all excited to bring back this exciting tradition to our parish. We are still in need of a lot of volunteers, please consider signing up for a 2 hour shift on our parish website, or on the sign-up sheets in the back of church. I hope to see everyone there.

Finally, I would like to thank all of our lawn mowers and those who look after our parish landscaping. Our campus looks wonderful, and we are grateful for you braving the heat to make sure we have a beautiful and welcoming environment.

Have a blessed week

Fr. Jeff

I like to deserve love. To me, it just makes sense. Tell me what to do in order to receive love. If that means cleaning the toilets or cracking jokes or making supper, I can do that. Like any purchase, I give something in order to receive something. Yet, true love is not something that I can just buy. True love doesn't give a reason to be given. It doesn't look for a “why”. I think of my nieces and nephews. They do nothing to earn my love, yet I give it anyway. That's why Christ tells us to be like the little children. They just accept love. Can I just accept the love? In the midst of my vulnerabilities, brokenness, and recognition that I can't rely only on myself, can I freely receive love? When I say sharp sarcastic comments, think only of myself, or overanalyze situations, am I able to receive that love? Can I allow myself to be loved when I need the love the most?

Vocations

PRAYER is a moving force in vocation development. Prayer is effective; prayer is powerful; prayer is essential. Few are called to priesthood or religious life, but all are called to pray for vocations. "Lord, your Church is in need. Touch the hearts of many within our parish with the desire to serve you. Call forth from this community sisters, brothers, deacons, priests and lay leaders. Help us to live lives that will nurture childhood trust into adult commitment. May this parish be a source of hope and a source of ministers for your Church, your people and your world? Amen."

This week pray for Father Minh Tran newest priest in the Archdiocese of Omaha. Read his vocations story and biography at <https://archomaha.org/vocations/seminary-life/Minh-Tran/>

That all those now discerning their vocation will be attentive in prayer and active in their response to Jesus the Eternal Word who calls them, we pray to the Lord.

"What must I do to inherit eternal life?" Faithfulness to one's vocation is essential to holiness. Is yours to be a priest, deacon, sister or brother?
