A Note From The Pastor

This weekend we hear the familiar and perplexing story of Martha and Mary. Jesus visits the sisters in their home and Martha seems to busy herself with the serving and the attention to detail while Mary sits and listens at the feet of Jesus. We can puzzle over the meaning of the story, but one thing is clear we must listen to Jesus when he is near to us. It is easy to busy ourselves with our work, our family obligations, and our hobbies but we must remember to take time every day to listen to Jesus.

This weekend we have our parish festival, and we are looking forward to a fun and exciting day. I will have more people to thank once the festival is completed but I would like to thank our festival committee and everyone who has worked so hard to get ready for this day.

Recently someone told me that they received an email from someone claiming to be me asking for gift cards. Luckily this person realized that it was a scam. As a reminder I will never solicit money, or gift cards via email or text messages. If you receive one of these emails, please delete it.

Have a blessed week,

Fr. Jeff

Our mouths give us so much information. With all the nerve endings on our lips and tongue, along with our taste buds, our mouths are sending us constant data. Think of toddlers. They put everything in their mouth in order to get a better idea of what it is. The Greeks understood this, as their word for “to know” came from their root word for “to taste.” I could tell you all about the honey bacon cheese curds in a bar in Minneapolis, but it isn’t until you actually taste them that you know and understand. Additionally, there is an intimacy using our mouth. You can’t taste something far away. It must be up close and personal. Think of the first kiss of a couple. They learn something new and intimate about the other. Now, think of how Jesus comes to us at Mass. We receive Him into our mouths. He comes desiring a personal relationship. He desires to know you and to be known by you. When we receive the Body of Christ, we are receiving an intimate kiss from the Lover.

—Zach Eischeid

Vocations

A VOCATION must be nurtured for a lifetime, not just until ordination or the taking of vows. You can help nurture the vocations of priests, sisters and brothers by praying, listening, and expressing appreciation. A life of service needs support from those served.

This week pray for Seminarian Zachary Eischeid. Read his vocations story and biography at <https://archomaha.org/vocations/seminary-life/Zachary-Eischeid/>

That like Mary of Bethany, all the priests, deacons and and men and women in the consecrated life will listen to the Lord in the silence of prayer, faithful to their choice of that better part, we pray to the Lord.

“It is He whom we proclaim.” Are you being called to proclaim Christ and the word of God? Call Father Jeff Mollner at 402-731-4694 or email: jjmollner@archomaha.org.
