When Jesus saw the vast crowd,
his heart was moved with pity for them,

*for they were like sheep
without a shepherd.*

A Note from the Pastor

This past weekend's storm made life difficult for a lot of people as they had to clean up tree limbs, fix broken fences, and make do without power. Unfortunately the storm and the threat of more rain forced us to cancel our Corn-hole tournament. Even though our plans were thrown into disarray, our Men's Club and our Festival Committee were able to put together an impromptu dinner following the 5 PM Mass. It was a fun night, people came together to eat and drink, we drew our raffle prizes, and we even ran out of food so nothing went to waste. I would like to thank our Festival Committee and our Men's club for their hard work organizing the Corn-hole tournament and the raffle, and even though things didn't go as planned we can say it was a success. I would like to congratulate our 2021 raffle winners -

$5000.00 - Kurt & Rita Frickle

$1000.00 - Mary Sporcic

$500.00. - Mark & Diana Schreier

Thank you to all who participated in this important fundraiser.

This past week I was able to spend a few days with some students from Gross Catholic during their online summer Life conference. I am so thankful to be back in high school ministry, and thankful to be at a parish that has such close ties to a Catholic high school. Please continue to keep the students of Gross Catholic in your prayers.

St. Bernadette, pray for us

Reschedule date for the Corn Hole Tournament will be Saturday, July 24, 2021 after the 5pm mass.

~ Fr. Jeff Mollner

FAITH FORMATION

Our Road to Becoming a Missional Church

- The Archbishop's Six-Year Goal: continued Thresholds of Conversion

1st Threshold

TRUST - A person has a positive experience with Jesus or an individual Catholic and may begin asking questions out of passive curiosity.

Did you ever consider joining a group or an organization, for yourself or possibly one of your children? Maybe it's a book club, a sports organization, a group that does some regular activity or even has a social or political focus. What was it that called you to have an initial interest? Was it the purpose of the group or organization? Was it the type of people who participated? Was it the friendships you saw develop within the group? What was it that triggered your initial curiosity and then gave you a sense of TRUST, that this was something special that you wanted to be a part of?

It's that positive encounter with Jesus or with one of his disciples that will trigger someone's initial curiosity into our Catholic Faith. Are you one of those disciples?

More to come!

Have you explored the FORMED website lately? It's totally free and jammed pack with wonderful Faith Formation resources.

If you are not already registered in FORMED, simply go to our parish website for instructions on how to register.

We will start taking Mass intentions for 2022 on Monday, July 19. Thank you Hope you are all having a great summer. We are currently planning for our PRE year. We are all so excited to study the Sacraments this year! I sent an email earlier this week, if you have not yet registered your family for this year's program, I need you to do this ASAP. If you have already registered but have yet to pay, please submit payment ASAP as well. I will be ordering our books and other materials the last week of July. If you are new to our Parish Religious Education (PRE) program and would like information, please contact the parish office at 402-731-4694. Have a great rest of your summer and can't wait to see you all soon!!!

Prayer Shawl Ministry

St. Bernadette Prayer Shawl Ministry meets the second Friday of every month in the Faculty Lounge from 1 to 3 pm. We have talented ladies who knit and crochet prayer shawls for our parishioners and friends. Anyone who knits or crochets – or would like to learn – is invited to join our ministry.

Please check out the shawls in the display case behind the Gift Certificate Sales booth on the upper level. The shawls are for anyone to take for yourself or to present to a friend or loved one. Each stitch in every shawl is a prayer for the person to receive the shawl. They are perfect gifts for weddings, birthdays, graduations, and bring special comfort to those who are ill or who have lost loved ones. There is no charge.

Call Mary Benak, 402-733-8451, for more information.

Vocations

Legend surrounds the brief life of Saint Wenceslaus I, Duke of Bohemia (907-935), originally venerated because of his martyrdom but most remembered today because of a Christmas carol that celebrates him as a model of generosity. Separating fact from fiction may be difficult after 1,000 years, but your own record of generosity should be easier to tally. Will anyone sing praises of your generosity a millennium from now? A hundred years? Ten minutes after you are gone? If not, what can you do today to start building your own lasting legacy as a disciple of Christ? —Take Five for Faith
What is your Earthly vocation (priest, religious, matrimony, single life) to happily help you achieve your eternal vocation as a saint?

This week pray for Seminarian Michael Figura. Read his vocations story and biography at <https://archomaha.org/vocations/seminary-life/Michael-Figura/>

That the Lord of the Harvest will provide an abundance of vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life in our diocese to help gather the wheat of souls into His barn, we pray to the Lord.

“He had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd.” Will you respond to the hunger of Christ’s sheep as a priest or in the consecrated life? Call Father Jeff Mollner at 402-731-4694 or email: jjmollner@archomaha.org.
