A Note from the Pastor

This past weekend I attended a conference at the chancery with members of our St. Bernadette Faith Formation team and representative of our parish council. The conference was on how to build a clear path to discipleship in our parish. A few years ago the Archbishop laid out his vision for the parishes of the Archdiocese. That vision includes parishes that are intentional in forming missionary disciples. Basically, parishes that not only run programs and “get things done” but parishes that support and equip people to both live and spread the Gospel in their everyday lives. We are blessed with so many great ministries and groups here at St. Bernadette, and we want to be able to continue to not only grow those ministries but also to help those involved in those ministries grow. I will be writing more about this in the future, and I look forward to implementing this vision here at St. Bernadette’s.

As I get more settled in here at the parish, I am getting a better idea of how the weekly schedule will look once school begins for our grade school and for Gross Catholic High School. Unfortunately, as I was looking at the upcoming schedule, I had to come to the decision that we will not be able to have Mass here at St. Bernadette on Monday mornings. I know the daily Mass is important to a lot of people, and when we had more than one priest in residence it was possible. However, having only one priest in residence and taking on additional Masses throughout the week at Gross Catholic it just isn’t possible to offer that Mass on Monday mornings. I will continue to offer Mass at 8:00 AM on Mondays through August 9th, and then after that we will have the 8:00 AM Mass Tuesday through Friday.

Have a blessed week,

~ Fr. Jeff Mollner

FAITH FORMATION

Our Road to Becoming a Missional Church

- The Archbishop's Six-Year Goal: continued

Thresholds of Conversion

Last week we talked about the 1st threshold, 'TRUST', where a person has a positive experience with Jesus or an individual Catholic and may begin asking questions out of passive curiosity.

Today we explore the 2nd Threshold, 'Openness', where a person takes the next step and admits to a general need or desire for personal spiritual change. This is not the same as a commitment to specific changes. This need or desire is often initiated after a person has a positive insight or experience that has built that initial trust, as we are only open to change if we trust that the change will effect a positive outcome in our life.

Are you open to a personal spiritual change in your life?

Are you open to experiencing or renewing your personal relationship with Jesus? Has someone, who is a true disciple of Jesus, influenced that openness?

Is there someone you know who may be open to this personal spiritual change? Have you been a model to them, initiating that openness?

We are all on a path to discipleship, whether it be as one who is open or one who can be a model and resource.

We walk together along the path, supporting each other.

More to come!

Have you explored the FORMED website lately? It's totally free and jammed pack with wonderful Faith Formation resources.

If you are not already registered in FORMED, simply go to our parish website for instructions on how to register.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

St. Bernadette Prayer Shawl Ministry meets the second Friday of every month in the Faculty Lounge from 1 to 3 pm. We have talented ladies who knit and crochet prayer shawls for our parishioners and friends.

Anyone who knits or crochets – or would like to learn – is invited to join our ministry.

Please check out the shawls in the display case behind the Gift Certificate Sales booth on the upper level.

The shawls are for anyone to take for yourself or to present to a friend or loved one. Each stitch in every shawl is a prayer for the person to receive the shawl. They are perfect gifts for weddings, birthdays, graduations, and bring special comfort to those who are ill or who have lost loved ones. There is no charge.

Call Mary Benak, 402-733-8451, for more information.

Omaha Nursing and Rehab is looking for 1 or 2 volunteers once a week to go room to room with a snack and magazine cart. They would start sometime in August.

Vocations

All the faithful of Christ of whatever rank or status are called to the fullness of the Christian life and to the perfection of charity. . . . In order that the faithful may reach this perfection, they must use their strength accordingly as they have received it, as a gift from Christ. . . . They must devote themselves with all their being to the glory of God and the service of their neighbor. In this way, the holiness of the People of God will grow into an abundant harvest of good. . . .
—Pope John XXIII at the opening of the Second Vatican Council on Oct. 11, 1962

This week pray for Seminarian Joshua Richards. Read his vocations story and biography at <https://archomaha.org/vocations/seminary-life/Joshua-Richards/>

For a greater appreciation of the richness of every vocation to love Christ and that more men and women will respond to His invitation to follow Him as priests, deacons and consecrated religious, we pray to the Lord.

“Lead a life worthy of the vocation to which you are called, with all humility and gentleness.” Has Christ called you to consider a vocation to the priesthood or the consecrated life? Call Father Jeff Mollner at 402-731-4694 or email: jjmollner@archomaha.org.
