A Note From The Pastor

This weekend we hear Jesus give the parable of the dishonest steward and the reminder that we cannot serve two masters. It is easy to find other masters to serve in this life. But God is the only master we can serve that gives us true freedom.

Please consider joining us for the Archdiocesan pastoral conference on Saturday October 1st from 9:00 AM to 12:30 PM. We will watch the conference in our parish cafeteria and have breakout sessions as we hear more about the Archdiocesan vision for our new parish family. This is an important step in our process of becoming a missional parish and we need as many people to attend as possible. We would like to get an idea of how many people will be joining us, so please call or email the parish office to register.

Last year we announced that our school principal Lynn Schultz was being honored as administrator of the year by the Archdiocese. The awards dinner will be held on Thursday September 22nd at the CHI Health Center. There are a few invitation cards on the table in the back of church if you would like to attend this dinner that both honors the award recipients and raises money for the children's scholarship fund. We are very thankful for Lynn and for everything she has done for our school. If you have any questions, please contact the school office or the Archdiocese of Omaha development office.

Have a blessed week,

Fr. Jeff

Celebrate Father Jeff Mollner and his priestly vocation!

Priesthood Sunday is a special day set aside nationally to honor our priests. It is a day to reflect upon and affirm the role of the priesthood in the life of the Church as a central one. Without priests, there is no Eucharist! Priesthood Sunday is celebrated this year on September 25.

St. Bernadette Parish is thankful for all of his work, prayers, and sacrifices Father Jeff Mollner has made for the many souls entrusted to him here at St. Bernadette and Gross High School.

We ask our parishioners, visitors, and schools' families to uplift Fr Mollner in prayer, as well as continue to pray for an increase in priestly vocations. If you have a chance to visit with Father Mollner, please express your gratitude for his answering God's call and what Father Mollner does for all of us.

We are so proud that our very own Lynn Schultz is being honored as an Administrator of the Year at the 45th annual Archbishop's Dinner for Education!

Congratulations to our principal Lynn Schultz, for giving others the chance to shine and whose "superpowers" are kindness and Christian empathy.

Event proceeds provide needs-based scholarships to families who cannot afford to send their child to a Catholic school. Donation opportunities and more information can be found here: <https://archomaha.org/dinnerforeducation/>

Purchase your tickets to the event today! Join us and support Lynn!

A number of parishioners have commented on the new occasional tables in the vestibule of the church. They were provided by the St. Bernadette Prayer Shawl Ministry using funds from donations for the prayer shawls. We hope their addition brightens the area. We accept donated yarn and we also buy our own and excess funds were used to provide the tables.

We would like to add a marble top for the round table. If you know anyone who might be of help, please let us know. If anyone is interested in joining the group, please contact Mary Benak, mhenak@cox.net or 402-733-8451.

Calling all vendors! Girl Scout Troop 45413 is hosting a Craftpalooza on 11/6/22 in the St. Bernadette Social Hall and we need you. If you make artwork, crafts, treats, or other items you'd like to sell, please contact Amber Roberts at troop45413@gmail.com. Cost is $25 per 8ft. table at the event with an additional $15 if you need electrical. This year kids are invited to join us to sell their items too! A limited number of tables will be made available for kids (17 and under). Cost is $10 for half a table. Vocations

3rd of 7 Essential Things About Your Vocation – Your vocation is an expression of who you are “Be who you are meant to be and you will set the whole world on fire”: this is a common paraphrase of the words of St Catherine of Siena. It’s tempting to think of your vocation as something you do. But St Catherine of Siena speaks of vocation in terms of being, not doing. Vocation is not simply something that you do but it is an authentic expression of who you are, of your very identity.

This week pray for Seminarian Will S. Targy.

For all those especially dedicated to making supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgiving on behalf of God’s people, that they will be strengthened in their vocations as priests, deacons and in the consecrated life, we pray to the Lord.

“No servant can serve two masters.” Are you discerning a vocation to serve the Lord as a priest, deacon, sister or brother?

Call Father Jeff Mollner at 402-731-4694 or email: jjmollner@archomaha.org.
