A Note from the Pastor

I would like to thank everyone for their continued support of the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal. In addition to making our financial goal of $54,239.00 we would like to see an increase in the number of our families that support this campaign. If you haven't given in the past, even a small donation will help us reach our goal. If you have any questions, please contact the parish office.

Next Monday, November 1 st , is the Feast Day of All Saints followed by All Souls Day on Tuesday. This year with All Saints Day falling on a Monday, November 1 st is NOT a holy of obligation. We do encourage people to attend Mass if they are able. We will not have a vigil Mass on the evening of Sunday October 31 st , but we will offer Mass at 8:00 AM on Monday. Unfortunately, we will not have the Holy Day Mass at noon. Instead, I will be offering Mass for the Gross Catholic Community that day.

We will have our annual memorial Mass for all those who have died on Tuesday November 2 nd at 7:00 PM. This Mass is to remember all those who have died this past year, and we will remember those we buried from St. Bernadette's by presenting the crosses that hang on the South wall to their families. Everyone is invited to attend this Mass. Even if you are not able to attend the Mass, praying for the dead is one of great works of mercy we are asked to take part in. Please remember those who have died in your prayers daily, but especially during the month of November.

Have a great week,

Fr. Jeff

Together, through the help of the Holy Spirit, we will create a culture of unity, evangelization, leadership and mercy. May God transform our simple gifts to the Archbishop's Annual Appeal and bring the ministry of the church to its fulfillment. Our parish goal of $54, 239.00. Thank you for saying yes to being a disciple and living mercy to our neighbors across the archdiocese.

Vocations

THE VOCATION OF MARRIAGE - Marriage is between one man and one woman. "When a man and a woman celebrate the sacrament of marriage, God is reflected in them," Pope Francis. When the Catholic Church teaches that marriage is a Christian vocation it is saying that the couple's relationship is more than simply their choice to enter a union which is a social and legal institution. A great internet resource is foryourmarriage.org – an initiative of the United States Council of Catholic Bishops (USCCB). IF YOU ARE MARRIED or soon to be married, you need to realize that your marriage is your vocation! Your marriage must come before all things except God!

This week pray for Seminarian Will Targy. Read his vocations story and biography at <https://archomaha.org/vocations/seminary-life/Will-Targy/>

That men and women will be encouraged to love God and their neighbor and follow Him generously when chosen to serve others as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated religious life, we pray to the Lord. "What do you want Me to do for you?" Could your answer be the grace of a vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life? Call Father Jeff Mollner at 402-731-4694 or email: jjmollner@archomaha.org.

Parish & Community News

Do you like to work with children and teach them about our Catholic Faith? Are you organized? Do you like to put teams of people together to help you achieve your goal? We are looking for an individual to organize and run our Vacation Bible School program. If you would like more information, contact Sue Reed at 402-731-4694 or sreedstb@gmail.com.

A reflection shared by our Society of St. Vincent de Paul conference for Sunday, October 24 - Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time:

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus asks Bartimaeus: "What do you want me to do for you?" And he answers, "Master, I want to see." Let us ask Jesus for the grace to "see" our brothers and sisters who are poor and lonely.

Every month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul is able to bring God's love and mercy to nearby families, providing food and/or funding for utility, rent and other bills. God Bless You!

Did you know that the Society now has five stores throughout the metro area? You can help SVdP help a neighbor in need by donating your gently used clothing and household goods and by shopping with us. We are especially in need of fall/winter clothing and holiday items. 402-341-1688.

We are still collecting coats for our annual COAT GIVE AWAY next week-end on Saturday, OCTOBER 30. Many coats needed, especially for children and large sizes. Gloves, scarves and hats also needed. Volunteers needed to sort coats this week and then to help give them away!! Please check svdpomaha.com for more information.

Contemplative Prayer Retreat, October 29 – 31 at Saint Benedict Center, Schuyler, with Father Thomas Leitner, OSB. "And I had an inkling that learning how to pray consists in learning how to be silent" (Antoine de Saint Exupery). In contemplative prayer, we divest our minds of all thoughts and images in order to receive the pure and simple light of God directly into the summit of our souls. This retreat involves breath practice. It is for those who have begun the practice of non-conceptual prayer. – Social distancing and wearing a mask is recommended. Friday, 7:30 p.m. to Sunday after lunch. Register now at www.StBenedictCenter.com or call (402) 352-8819.
