A Note From The Pastor

This weekend we hear the familiar story of Zacchaeus, the rich tax collector who climbs a tree to see Jesus. His curiosity about Jesus led him to take the steps needed to have an encounter that would radically change his life. What steps can we take this week to have an encounter with Christ.

I would like to thank all those who have already contributed to the Archbishop's annual appeal. One of the areas that this annual appeal funds is our Archdiocesan vocations office. The vocations office helps young men who are discerning priesthood and makes it possible for them to attend seminary. We were blessed to have Zach Eischeid do his pastoral year with us last year, the Archbishop's Annual Appeal allows great programs like the pastoral year to occur in our Archdiocese. As of this week we have raised $20,600 of our $57,937.00 goal. Please prayerfully consider helping us reach that goal.

November is the month in the Church where we remember those who have died. This weekend we will have our Mass of remembrance for those who were buried from our parish. Please make a special intention to pray for all those who have died this month.

This coming Tuesday we will celebrate All Saints Day followed by All Souls Day. Our Mass schedule at St. Bernadette will be as follows:

Monday Oct 31st - 5:30 PM

Tuesday Nov 1st - 8:00 AM & 12:00 PM

Wednesday Nov 2nd - 8:00 AM

Have a blessed week

Fr. Jeff

It's that time of year. I know we still need to celebrate Thanksgiving, but we need to start preparing for Boxes of Joy. Once again, this year, the Religious Education program and St Bernadette School families will be working together to collect items to put inside these boxes. These boxes will go to children in the Dominican Republic, Haiti, Guatemala, Nicaragua, El Salvador, Honduras, Grenada and Colombia. Our goal this year is to fill 80 boxes!!!! Thus help 80 children have a very Merry Christmas!!! Please see the bulletin board in the back of church with the list of needed items. If you don't want to shop, a monetary donation is also greatly appreciated. It costs us $9.00 per box to mail plus the money can also be used to buy items. We will collect items and money until November 1st. Please contact Sue Reed for more information, 402-731-4694.

Vocations

PRAYER is a moving force in vocation development. Prayer is effective; prayer is powerful; prayer is essential. Few are called to priesthood or religious life, but all are called to pray for vocations. “Lord, your Church is in need. Touch the hearts of many within our parish with the desire to serve you. Call forth from this community sisters, brothers, deacons, priests and lay leaders. Help us to live lives that will nurture childhood trust into adult commitment. May this parish be a source of hope and a source of ministers for your Church, your people and your world. Amen.”

This week pray for Seminarian Steven R. Mahoney.

That the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in all those chosen to follow Him as priests, deacons or in the consecrated life and that they in turn will be glorified for their faithfulness to His call, we pray to the Lord.

“But you have mercy on all, because you can do all things.” Are you called to be a vehicle of God’s mercy as a priest, deacon, sister or brother?
