15TH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

- Mk 6:7, 13

From the Pastor

Greetings St. Bernadette / Holy Ghost,

In today's gospel Jesus sends out His apostles two by two to build the Kingdom of God. We often think that this is the job of the bishop, priest, deacons, religious (and indeed it is), however we forget that it is also the responsibility of every disciple. All Christians are called to proclaim the good news of the gospel and to witness to Jesus Christ.

This undertaking can seem intimidating and overwhelming. We might think, "What will I say? I don't know enough about Jesus, the Church or the bible. They will think I'm weird. They will reject me." Although these are normal/reasonable thoughts, they come from the subtle-false belief that "I have to do it alone". This is not true.

As Jesus sends forth His apostles, He sends them two by two for a reason. He is teaching us that the work of conversion is not a solitary endeavor. We need assistance and support. We need a community and connection in our efforts to win souls for God. This is why the Lord says, "Where two or three are gathered together in my name, I will be among them." Notice He did not say "where one is alone". Not only does He give us the support of two or three, but the Lord also reassures us that He Himself is with us on mission.

"He instructed them to take nothing for the journey." The idea of being without provision, comfort, conveniences is scary. How often do we panic when we have misplaced our wallets, phones or keys? Think of the feeling when our luggage has been lost; we experience vulnerability and nakedness. Jesus is doing this for a reason. In sending them forth without food, sack, money, or second tunic He is teaching His apostles to trust in the providence of God. He wants them to abandon the ideas of self-preservation and self-reliance that they may witness God working through them and with them.

"Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave." Jesus prevents His apostles from catering to their personal preferences or falling into the politics of people. They are not to go running after the best house or accommodations. They are not to be swayed by charisma or status. Rather they are to preach repentance to sinners.

"Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them." Part of building the Kingdom of God, witnessing to Jesus and preaching the gospel is to call out sin as sin and to call those in sin to repent. This is the entire purpose of why Jesus came, to save us from our sins. No one likes to be called out and no one wants to be told they are in error. Yet, as uncomfortable as it can be, it is absolutely necessary for conversion. Jesus is showing His apostles that many will reject them because of their message. In such cases, He instructs them to move on to the next person. This can be heartbreaking, but we entrust them to God.

As the Lord sends forth His apostles, so He sends you. This week let us pray about who is your partner/support? Who is Jesus sending you to? What provisions is He asking you to abandon? Let us build up the Kingdom together and remember that we are not alone!

Blessings,
Fr. Boyd

Prayer Shawl Ministry

St. Bernadette Prayer Shawl Ministry meets the second Friday of every month in the Faculty Lounge from 1 to 3 pm. We have talented ladies who knit and crochet prayer shawls for our parishioners and friends.
Anyone who knits or crochets – or would like to learn –
is invited to join our ministry.

The shawls are for anyone to take for yourself or to present to a friend or loved one. Each stitch in every shawl is a prayer for the person to receive the shawl.
They are perfect gifts for weddings, birthdays, graduations, and bring special comfort to those who are ill or who have lost loved ones. There is no charge.
Call Mary Benak, 402-733-8451, for more information.

Vocations

This Wednesday kicks off the 10th National Eucharistic Congress. Tens of thousands of Catholics will gather in Indianapolis for the nation's first Eucharistic Congress in more than eight decades. While the main focus is clear—to adore Jesus truly present in the Blessed Sacrament—participants will also notice a heavy emphasis on vocations.

Religious communities from across the country will be attending, many underwritten by Serra International, which is organizing a large area in the convention hall that will be teeming with sisters and brothers. The Knights of Columbus are sponsoring an entire section to showcase diocesan priesthood, with a small army of priests on hand to talk with young men. Also in attendance will be hundreds of seminarians, many of whom will have just completed the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage, an ambitious project that saw thousands marching toward Indiana along different routes totaling 6,500 miles.

The connection between the Eucharist and vocations is clear: Three-quarters of recently ordained priests regularly participated in Eucharistic Adoration before entering seminary. And at Catholic youth events, even those offering sports and high-energy activities, teen participants still rank one "activity" as their favorite: Adoration. As the Church prepares for this historic event, let's ask our Eucharistic Lord for an outpouring of vocations!

Bob will use specially composed instrumental music and texts to help retreatants enter into moments in the life of Jesus. Please bring your iPod, iPad, MP3 player, or computer.
