WHEN THE WINE RAN SHORT, THE MOTHER OF JESUS SAID TO HIM, "THEY HAVE NO WINE." - JN 2:3

2ND SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

The Gospel is from John 2:1-12. There are many lessons we can learn from this incident in Christ's life: for example, Christ's approval of marriage—there were some heretical sects later who said marriage was sinful, unfit for a Christian. Or we could see in it the intercessory power of our blessed Mother. Christ anticipated his "hour" for working miracles in order to grant her request. But the theme of today's readings is the goodness and kindness of God and we surely have a convincing proof of that loving kindness in today's gospel story.

Christ worked his first miracle in order to grant a temporal favor, an earthly gift, to save the newly-married groom from embarrassment. It had the other effects of convincing his very recent disciples of their belief that he was the expected Messiah, and also it convinces all Christians of the efficacy of our Lady's intercession for us, but its primary purpose was to confer a temporal benefit on the groom.

By this kind act he has shown us that he is interested in our earthly affairs also. He became man in order that we could become sons of God, he came on earth so that we could go to heaven, but this miracle at Cana proves that he has a deep interest in our many and varied activities during the course of our journey to heaven.

He told us "ask and you shall receive." That "shall" is very definite, our prayers will be answered, and what we should ask for is not only spiritual gifts, but the temporal aids also which we need. The "shall" applies to them too, as the miracle of Cana proves. We shall get our temporal requests, provided of course that they won't impede us on our journey to heaven. No kind father would give his child a gift that would injure him—God is the kindest of fathers and he sees what will or will not impede or endanger our eternal happiness. We can and should therefore make our temporal needs known to God in our prayers, confident that he will give us what we ask if it is for our real good.

But, someone may object: how often have I asked God for temporal favors I needed so badly, and my prayer was unanswered? Was it unanswered really? Perhaps you did not get the exact thing you asked for but you got something more useful, more necessary, something you never thought of asking for, but the good God saw your need of it. We have a father in heaven who really loves us, and cares for us, let us make our temporal, as well as our spiritual needs, known to him in confident prayer. Our requests will not go unanswered.

—Excerpted from The Sunday Readings by Fr. Kevin O'Sullivan, O.F.M.

BEGIN YOUR YEAR IMMERGED IN THE GOSPEL OF LUKE

“Luke: The Story of Salvation Fulfilled”

The Gospel of Luke takes you on a journey that begins with the foretelling of John the Baptist’s birth and culminates in Jesus’ ascension into heaven. On the road to Emmaus, a story unique to the Gospel of Luke, Jesus gave us the greatest Bible study of all time, laying out his fulfillment of the Old Testament.

In “Luke: The Story of Salvation Fulfilled”, you will witness key moments in salvation history including the Annunciation, the Nativity, his public ministry, and Jesus’ suffering, death, and glorious Resurrection. There are parables found only in Luke, including the Prodigal Son, the Good Samaritan, and the rich man and Lazarus which will show you the mercy and compassion that Jesus has for each one of his children.

In this 8-Week Study, Jeff Cavins and Dr. Jeffrey Morrow will show you how the Gospel of Luke will transform your relationship with our Savior. With Luke’s powerful prose and unique parables, you will learn about the love and mercy Jesus has for each of us.

There will be a Video Presentation and Small Group Discussion each week of the course.
Refreshments will be provided

Vocations

Q. Wouldn't it solve the priest shortage if priests could get married?

A. Perhaps more men would choose the priesthood, but the question is, "Would this be what is best for the Church?". Catholic priests do not marry as to dedicate themselves completely to Christ and His people. Celibacy for the sake of the Kingdom is a powerful sign that Jesus is real! And, that He is worth living for, sacrificing for, and dying for. In many parts of the world, vocations to the religious life and the priesthood have dramatically increased. In contrast, in the U.S. and Western Europe, they have dramatically decreased. The problem is not the requirement of celibacy; there are more complex social dynamics at work. If you or someone you know is considering a vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life, contact Father Boyd or email: vocations@archomaha.org.

Joel Macul, OSB, STL, will present a retreat titled, “With Age-Old Love I have Loved You” (Jeremiah 31:3) at Saint Benedict Center, four miles north of Schuyler, February 14 – 16, 2025. “Your words were my joy, the happiness of my heart” (Jer 15:16). This line sounds as though it comes from someone who delights in the Lord’s love. But for Jeremiah they come out of an experience of crisis. The world that he knows is coming apart. And he finds himself torn between his love for the community and his fidelity to God.
