3rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

*The Spirit of the Lord is upon me...
He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free. - Lk 4:18*

Today's Gospel reading combines two separate passages taken from the Gospel of Luke. First we hear the opening verses where Luke establishes the purpose of his Gospel. His style is typical of polished Greek and Roman literature. In this passage, we learn that Luke may have written to a specific person, Theophilus; but the word Theophilus may also be a general reference, functioning as the phrase “Dear Reader” might in contemporary writing. In Greek, the word Theophilus translates as “lover of God.”

Today's Gospel reading then skips several chapters in which one would find the Infancy Narratives, Jesus' baptism by John, the temptations Jesus faced in the desert, and the beginning of Jesus' public ministry. In chapter four of Luke's Gospel, we hear that Jesus is in his hometown of Nazareth, attending the synagogue on the Sabbath, which is said to be his custom. In this account, we find another important clue that Jesus lived as a faithful, observant Jew. We will continue to read from Luke's Gospel in sequence for the next two Sundays.

As Jesus stands in the synagogue, he reads from the scroll handed to him; it contains the words of the prophet Isaiah. At this early moment in his ministry, Jesus announces his mission in continuity with Israel's prophetic tradition. This reading from Isaiah defines Jesus' ministry. We will find more evidence of this as we continue to read from Luke's Gospel throughout the year. Jesus' ministry will include bringing glad tidings to the poor, liberty to captives, healing to the sick, freedom to the oppressed, and proclaiming a year acceptable to the Lord.

Through this text from Isaiah, Jesus announces God's salvation. The “year acceptable to the Lord” is a reference to the Jewish tradition of Sabbath years and jubilee. The Sabbath year was observed every seventh year. It was a year of rest when land was left fallow and food stores were to be shared equally with all. A year of Jubilee was celebrated every fiftieth year, the conclusion of seven cycles of Sabbath years. It was a year of renewal in which debts were forgiven and slaves were freed.

This tradition of Jubilee is the framework for God's promise of salvation. And yet in Jesus, something new begins. Jesus not only announces God's salvation, he brings this salvation about in his person. Jesus is Yahweh's Anointed One, filled with the Spirit of God. The Kingdom of God is now at hand. It is made present in Jesus, in his life, death, and Resurrection. Jesus will send the Holy Spirit so that the Kingdom of God can be fulfilled.

The Holy Spirit is Jesus' gift to the Church. The Holy Spirit enables the Church to continue the mission of Jesus. When we do what Jesus did—bring glad tidings to the poor, liberty to captives, healing to the sick, and freedom to the oppressed—we serve the Kingdom of God.

No Financials due to the MLK Holiday

When we pray our Patriotic Rosary, we gather to lift our nation in prayer, asking for healing, peace, and restoration. We pray for California and all those affected by tragedy, particularly those who have lost their lives. We ask for wisdom to guide our leaders, and may we find strength in each other as we move forward in faith. Legion of Mary

The weekend of February 1-2, the Church celebrates the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord which occurs 40 days after the birth of Jesus. An ancient feast in the Church, it is also known as "Candlemas Day", since the blessing and procession of candles is included in the liturgy. This weekend's Masses will begin by the Baptismal Font. The candles will be blessed with the holy water during the Procession and all the candles held by the congregation will be lit with a flame taken from the Easter candle. The solemn procession represents the entry of Christ, who is the light of the world, into the Temple of Jerusalem.

Vocations

This week we celebrate National Catholic Schools Week. By focusing on faith, knowledge, community, and service, Catholic schools prepare children to use their God-given talents to the fullest. Catholic Schools Week offers an opportunity for students to explore the many life paths that enable them to use their talents well in the service of God and others. Many priests and sisters credit Catholic schools for their faith and discernment to the priestly and consecrated life. This week, let us pray for the students of St. Bernadette School and Gross Catholic to learn in an ever faith-filled environment where vocations to the priesthood and religious life may abound.

Is Christ calling you or someone you know to serve Him in others as a sister, brother, deacon or priest? Contact Father Boyd or email: vocations@archomaha.org to help with your discernment.

The Rev. Joel Macul, OSB, STL, will present a retreat titled, “With Age-Old Love I have Loved You” (Jeremiah 31:3) at Saint Benedict Center, four miles north of Schuyler, February 14 – 16, 2025. “Your words were my joy, the happiness of my heart” (Jer 15:16). This line sounds as though it comes from someone who delights in the Lord’s love. But for Jeremiah they come out of an experience of crisis. The world that he knows is coming apart. And he finds himself torn between his love for the community and his fidelity to God.
