Mercy—A Lenten Pilgrimage with St. Luke, March 14 - 16, retreat at Saint Benedict Center, Schuyler, with Father James L. Secora, MDiv, MEd, from Ames, IA. A principal theme of St. Luke's Gospel is mercy. This Lenten retreat will center itself around the Gospel's most famous discourse on God's mercy, The Parable of the Prodigal Son/Father (Ch. 15). A brief overview of the theme of divine mercy and St. Luke's gospel will introduce our reflection. Consideration will also be given to the Sacred Heart of Jesus as a symbol of divine mercy. Did you take the name of a Confirmation Candidate?
Please continue to pray for your Confirmation Candidate. Just a reminder that you are also asked to provide your candidate with a greeting card letting them know that you were praying for them. A collection basket for these cards will be in the back of church after all masses the weekends of March 15/16 and March 22/23. Please make sure your candidate's name is on the card's envelope. These cards will be given to them at their Confirmation on April 4, 2025.

This week we begin the season of Lent. This is the time for us to grow closer to Christ. During these forty days we fast, pray, and give as we grow closer to and strengthen our relationship with Christ. What will you do these forty days to help you grow closer to Christ? Take time this week to do some of the activities in your Lenten family packet.

Vocations

We are now well into March, the month devoted to the great role model of family vocations, St. Joseph. He was the most chaste spouse of Our Blessed Mother and the loving foster-father of Jesus.

The vocation of St. Joseph as a husband and father models for us our family's vocation to holiness, which involves serving God and serving each other in the family. In his fatherly vocation, St. Joseph made a total gift of himself and placed his whole life and all his leadership of the Holy Family at the service of Jesus' mission as our redeeming Messiah. Please find enclosed in the bulletin this week and at the back of church the St Joseph Novena for Vocations. This novena begins on Tuesday, March 11 and concludes on the feast of St Joseph on March 19. Join our parish family and school in imploring St. Joseph's powerful intercession for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life and an increase in faith-filled marriages.

Our next Don & Millie's on 84th & Q Caring and Sharing event is March 17th from 11am- 9pm. Dine in or carry out! We hope to see you there!

Society of St. Vincent de Paul Helpline Could Use Your Help!
 What would you do if you were about to be evicted from your home...or you'd received notice that your gas, water, or electric utility service was going to be shut off? What if you had no savings, couldn't feed your family, and had no safety net to help you through these difficult times? What if the prospect of falling into homelessness seemed like your only "choice.&quot;?

These scenarios describe individuals and families that the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Omaha serves every day of the year... which is why we offer our SSVP Helpline.
 The Helpline is an easy-to-use, one-stop, online service for Omaha-area neighbors in need. Here, they can inquire into, and request material or financial assistance from SSVP Omaha.

The SSVP Helpline is staffed by volunteers who provide a caring and compassionate response to neighbors in need who may be experiencing the most difficult and turbulent time in their entire lives.

If you are interested in becoming an SSVP Helpline volunteer, please be in touch with Kristina Janousek at 402-779-8499, ext. 107, or email Kristina at conferencesupport@ssvpomaha.org.
