The Rev. Christoph Gerhard, OSB, will present a retreat titled Astronomy and the Question for God at Saint Benedict Center, four miles north of Schuyler, on April 5 – 6, 2025.

As a life-bearing “spaceship,” our Earth is a unique spot in the universe. Astronomy explores stars, planets, and distant galaxies in search of life. For many of us, looking through a telescope into the “infinite” cosmos inevitably raises the question of a creator. But is there even a place for God in the universe? Do science and faith not contradict each other?

Five Steps to a Vibrant Christian Spirituality, March 22 - 23, retreat at Saint Benedict Center, Schuyler, with Father Tom Hillenbrand, OSB, STL. This retreat is based on the Rule of Benedict. It offers an overview of the Rule and the values we can draw from it for living out our life as disciples of Jesus. The main focus will be on friendship with Jesus and how to live in peace with others. Saturday, 9:30 a.m. to Sunday after lunch. Register now by clicking the button below or call (402) 352-8819.

Vocations

This Tuesday we celebrate the Annunciation of the Lord. Our Lady's vocational call was nothing short of the greatest in human history: to bring our divine Redeemer into the world, and to uniquely participate with Jesus in human Redemption. The Annunciation reveals the greatest human "yes" to the greatest human vocation in creation. Our Lady's fiat would be a "yes" she would utter throughout her life.

Sometimes, a young person may feel everyone else has a vocation except them, crying in their hearts, "I think God forgot me!" This is impossible. If your loving Father knows the number of hairs on your head, He likewise has planned a beautiful and fruitful vocation for your life. Oftentimes, more extended time in prayer is necessary in order to hear it, then to accept it, then to live it. There's no place better for this vocational listening and discerning than before our Eucharistic Jesus in Adoration, where our Lord answers all the questions we need to know at precisely the right time.

Our next Don & Millie's on 84th & Q Caring and Sharing event is April 21st from 11am- 9pm. Dine in or carry out! We hope to see you there!

Society of St. Vincent de Paul Helpline Could Use Your Help!
What would you do if you were about to be evicted from your home...or you'd received notice that your gas, water, or electric utility service was going to be shut off? What if you had no savings, couldn't feed your family, and had no safety net to help you through these difficult times? What if the prospect of falling into homelessness seemed like your only "choice."?

These scenarios describe individuals and families that the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Omaha serves every day of the year... which is why we offer our SSVP Helpline.
The Helpline is an easy-to-use, one-stop, online service for Omaha-area neighbors in need. Here, they can inquire into, and request material or financial assistance from SSVP Omaha.

The SSVP Helpline is staffed by volunteers who provide a caring and compassionate response to neighbors in need who may be experiencing the most difficult and turbulent time in their entire lives.

If you are interested in becoming an SSVP Helpline volunteer, please be in touch with Kristina Janousek at 402-779-8499, ext. 107, or email Kristina at conferencesupport@ssvpomaha.org.
